

GREENVILLE POLICE DEPARTMENT COPS ON COURT PROGRAM

IMPORTANT: THIS IS A LEGAL DOCUMENT TO BE SIGNED BY PARENTS / GUARDIANS OF PARTICIPATING MINORS AND INCLUDES AN INDEMNIFICATION, WAIVER AND RELEASE OF LIABILITY, AND CONSENT TO EMERGENCY TREATMENT.

In order to afford area youth of the age eight and older the opportunity to participate in a group athletic program, the City of Greenville Police Department ("Department") is sponsoring a local evening basketball program to be known as "Cops on Court". While we do not wish to frighten you or discourage you, or your child's, participation in the program, you need to understand and be aware that the aspects of the program that make it desirable, being running, jumping, physical exertion, and structured athletic competition, may also lead to danger, injury, and/or death. Thus, you must determine if you, if over the age of eighteen, or your child, if a minor, is capable of participating in the program, and if such participation is advisable for you or your child. After considering the foregoing, you must certify for yourself, if over the age of eighteen, or your child, if a minor, that you or your child is capable of participating in the Cops on Court program, and that you have determined that it is advisable to do so, and do hereby consent to such participation.

YOU OR YOUR CHILD WILL NOT BE ALLOWED TO PARTICIPATE IN THE COPS ON COURT PROGRAM WITHOUT COMPLETING AND SIGNING THIS FORM.
